STRING EASTER EGGS

MATERIALS:

- Embroidery Floss
- Water balloons
- Balloon pumper-upper
- Elmer's glue

DIRECTIONS

Blow up some balloons with the pumper-upper, because your face will explode if you try to blow these suckers up with your breath.

Set up the ingenious drying rack I devised for the paper mache pencils project. Or you can probably just set the eggs on wax paper after you wrap them, but it's not nearly as fun as clothes pinning them to a cooling rack.

Cut arm-lengths of embroidery floss- I used about 6-8 for each balloon. Experiment with putting different colors together, or use one color per balloon.

Mix up a bowl of glue with enough water (add a small amount at a time), to make it just runny enough to soak into the embroidery thread.

Take a piece of your thread and dunk it into the bowl of water glue, pressing it in all the way so that the whole length of the thread gets nice and saturated. Grab an end of the thread and wring it out between your fingers as you pull it from the bowl.

Now wrap it around the balloon, and follow suit with each piece of thread until it looks good to you.

I clipped the balloons to the drying rack with a clothes pin – just make sure they aren't touching each other, and won't be knocked over.

After a few hours, your string will have dried and you can pop the balloons. We had a very fun family few moments poking tacks into the balloons and watching/listening to them as they slowly deflated. Pull the balloons out with your fingers or tweezers.

Now is the time to decide if you want to display your string eggs in a lovely bowl, or tie embroidery thread to them and hang them from your Ikea light. I was so tempted to tie them to a ceiling fan.

EASTER SCAVENGER HUNT

Print, cut out, and hide the clues! The clues can be hidden as-is or they can be tucked inside of a plastic Easter egg. For multiple kids, I assign each child their own specific color of Easter eggs, mix up the order of the clues, and make sure the kids know to only pick up eggs in their own color and leave the rest. Each child still receives the last clue as their last clue, so they are usually all racing to the final prize destination at the same time.

LET'S GO ON A TREASURE HUNT! IT WILL BE SUCH FUN! GO TO THE PLACE WHERE YOU PUT YOUR SHOES WHEN THE DAY'S ALL DONE!

LOVE AND JOY AND EASTER WISHES - YOUR NEXT CLUE IS HIDING WHERE YOU PUT YOUR DIRTY DISHES!

ANOTHER CLUE, YOU'RE DOING GREAT! HEAD TO WHERE YOU FIND YOUR JAMMIES WHEN IT'S GETTING LATE!

CARROTS ARE MY FAVORITE SNACK! SUCH A TASTY TREAT! HEAD TO THE PLACE WHERE YOU CAN GRAB A COLD CHILLED BITE TO EAT!

THIS TREASURE HUNT IS FUN, BUT IT'S NOT DONE YET! GO TO WHERE YOU USE THE SOAP AND GET YOUR HANDS ALL WET!

YOU'RE ALMOST THERE! YOU'LL BE A WINNER! NOW, GO TO THE PLACE WHERE YOU SIT WHEN YOU EAT YOUR DINNER!

YOU'RE GETTING CLOSE, THIS CLUE IS EASY! OPEN ONE OF THESE FOR SOME FRESH AIR WHEN THE WEATHER GETS WARM AND BREEZY!

YOU'RE ALMOST DONE! IT'S TIME TO FIND YOUR PRIZE! GO TO WHERE YOU KEEP THE CAR FOR A BIG SURPRISE!

HANDPRINT EASTER CRAFT

MATERIALS

- Colored card stock or construction paper
- Glue stick (this one is my favorite for heavy paper)
- Pencil
- White pipe cleaners
- Pink pom poms
- Glue dots
- Scissors
- Bunny template

Step 1

Download the bunny template and print onto the coordinating colored card stock. You can get this template by following the link at the bottom of this page and entering your email address in at the bottom of the website. Template is sent instantly.

Step 2

Cut out the pieces. Trace your child's handprint twice onto colored card stock of the same color of your bunny's head. Cut out.

Step 3

Glue the inside of the bunny's ear onto the child's handprints. Glue the handprint to the back of the bunny's head, pointing upward.

Step 4

Cut out two small ovals to act as the bunny's cheeks. Glue them slightly below the eyes.

Step 5

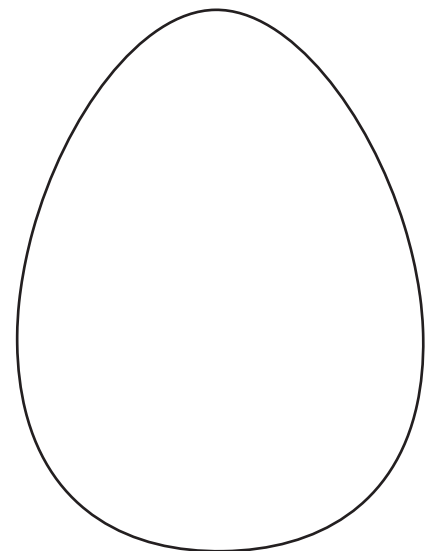

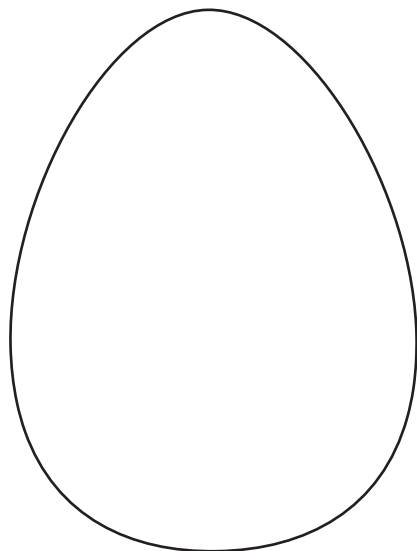

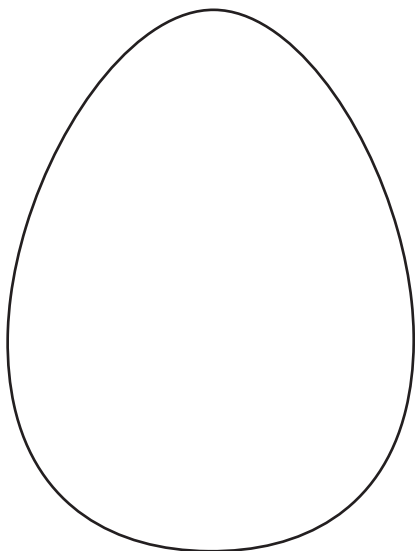

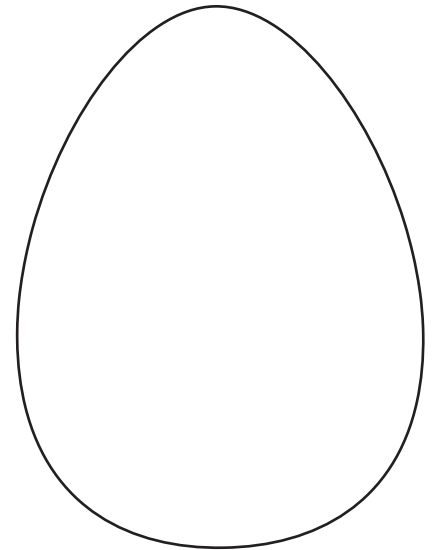

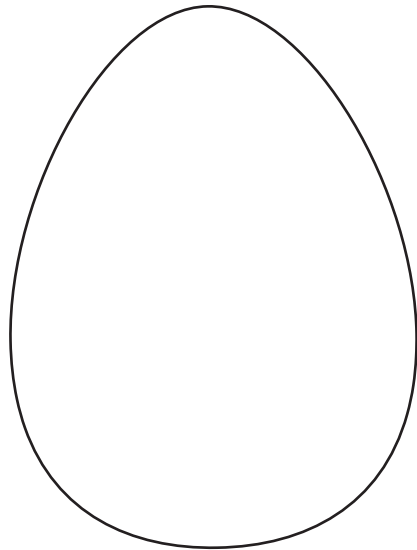

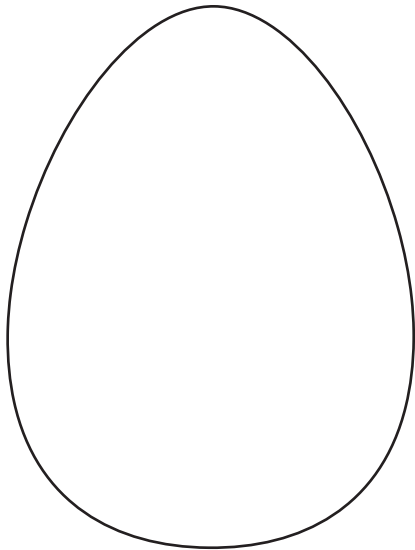

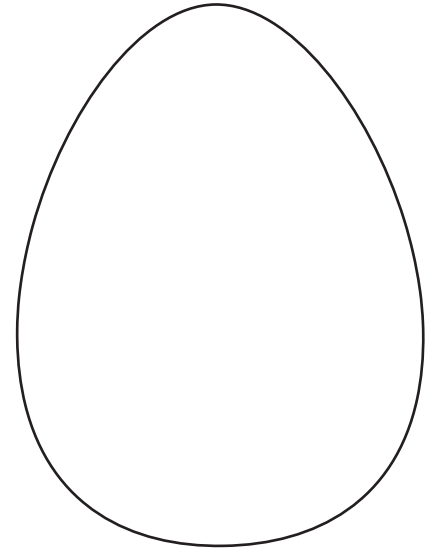

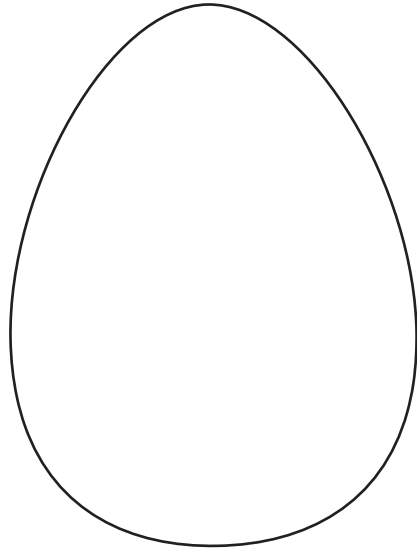

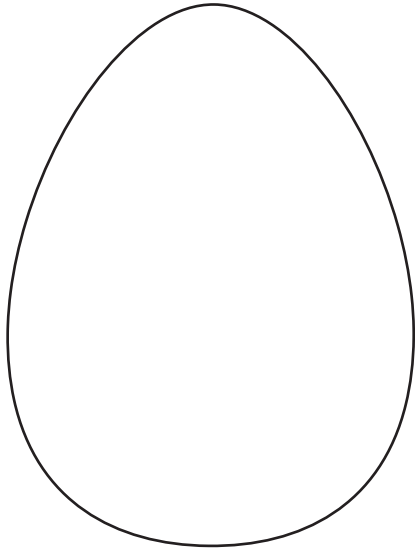

Glue the pink pom pom nose onto the bunny's face with a glue dot.

Step 6

Cut the 3 white pipe cleaners in half then twist them together in the center. Glue them just below the bunny's nose with a glue dot.
